

We have added two new weekend courses for 2017, in addition to our popular summer school:

Painting Skills for Heraldic Art & Manuscript Illumination

Friday 5 to Sunday 7 May 2017

This weekend course is suitable both for the beginner and those who have started to develop their skills in Heraldic Art & Illumination and would like to work on various Painting Skills. All students will be taught individually by Gerald Mynott to each student's personal requirements.

Contemporary Calligraphy, Lettering & Design — Intermediate Level

Friday 2 to Sunday 4 June 2017

An introduction to the art of Contemporary Calligraphy, Lettering & Design led by Gerald Mynott. A chance to explore a broad range of ideas and materials for students with a basic understanding of some historical Calligraphic hands e.g. Uncial Round Hand and Italic. As well as introducing a variety of scripts, tools and materials, Gerald will provide group and individual tutoring for participants in the relaxed atmosphere of our beautiful Cambridge Centre.

These courses will start with an introductory lecture at 6pm on the Friday, followed by welcome drinks and dinner, and finish at 5pm on Sunday. The price for each 2 day course is £290, which includes 2 nights' accommodation, all meals, tea/coffee at breaks and tuition. Delegates will be expected to provide their own pens, brushes and other materials (a list will be provided with the final invoice for your course). Additional DB&B for Sunday night is available for £75.

Calligraphy, Heraldic Art & Manuscript Illumination

Summer School

Thursday 3 to Wednesday 9 August 2017

Our adult residential summer school is designed to help students develop their skills, knowledge and passion for Calligraphy, Heraldic Art and Manuscript Illumination.

Gerald Mynott will tutor all three art forms during the summer school. Participants will benefit from personalised tuition and extended periods of concentration on their own work. During this course we will visit Cambridge for a private viewing of some of the finest illuminated manuscripts in any collection in the world.

The course will start with an introduction and welcome drinks at 6.15pm on Thursday 3 August and finish after breakfast on Wednesday 9 August. The price for the summer school is £650, which includes 6 nights' accommodation, all meals, tea/coffee at breaks, the visit to Cambridge and tuition. Delegates will be expected to provide their own pens, brushes and other materials (a list will be provided with the final invoice for your course).

The tutor for these three courses is artist and calligrapher Gerald Mynott. He has been a part-time lecturer in heraldry, calligraphy and illumination at the Reigate College of Art since 1980, (now part of East Surrey College).

Our Venue: The Cambridge Centre at Villiers Park

Our attractive and comfortable residential training centre is set in beautiful grounds on the edge of the Cambridgeshire village of Foxton. We are renowned for our warm welcome and excellent food. Accommodation is in en-suite study bedrooms (single or twin).
