

Location of the event on King's campus

The entrance to King's College campus is immediately opposite St Mary le Strand Church in the Strand. The church is located between the two junctions of Aldwych and the Strand.

If approaching from the Charing Cross (west) end of the Strand, it is just after Somerset House. From the Fleet Street end (east) and Temple underground station it is just after Surrey Street.

Please sign in at reception and then proceed down the walkway (below left) and enter the building via the main door (below, right). We will be there to welcome you in the foyer.

